Information about this form:
This form is to be used where the owner of an elderly person’s housing unit in the Residential Medium Density zone wishes to discharge (remove) an encumbrance because the unit has been converted into a residential unit able to be occupied by anyone, in accordance with Rule 14.5.1.1 P3 of the Christchurch District Plan.

A fee is payable when this form is submitted. If the form is submitted by email we will send you an invoice together with information about payment methods.

Where more than one unit on a site has been converted, requests to discharge the encumbrance from all of the converted units can be submitted on the same form. Additional fees may be incurred for multiple discharges.

Please note that in addition to Council requirements, there may be separate Body Corporate requirements that need to be complied with in order for your unit to be converted for general occupancy. It is recommended that you check with the Body Corporate for your unit, and/or your solicitor, before submitting this form.

Property address

Address of property on which the elderly person’s housing unit is located:

Request for discharge of encumbrance

Before the Council’s solicitors can discharge the encumbrance it is necessary for you to request the Council to instruct its solicitors accordingly. Please sign the following clause and provide the details below, and return this form to the Council. The Council’s solicitors will then prepare the encumbrance discharge and advise you/your solicitor when the discharge has been registered.

The owner(s) has/have read, understood and accept the Council’s requirements and ask the Council to instruct its solicitors to prepare the discharge of encumbrance in accordance with the above requirements.

Checklist

This Checklist outlines the requirements of Rule 14.5.1.1 P3 of the District Plan for the conversion of an elderly person’s housing unit into a residential unit that can be occupied by anyone. Before an encumbrance can be discharged the Council must be satisfied that the converted unit complies with all of these requirements, or resource consent has been obtained for any breach of this rule.

Please complete all sections and attach any necessary supporting information (e.g. site and floor plans).
